

BVT Presentation

RNDr. Jan KREJČÍ, PhD., Chief of executive board

October 17, 2012

- BVT Technologies is small innovation company which concentrates on production, development, research of electrochemical sensors.
- BVT Technologies was the first company which applied the microelectronic technologies to electrochemistry.
- BVT Technologies concentrates on the knowledge development, protection and use.

Introduction

Location – Czech Republic

Company head office:

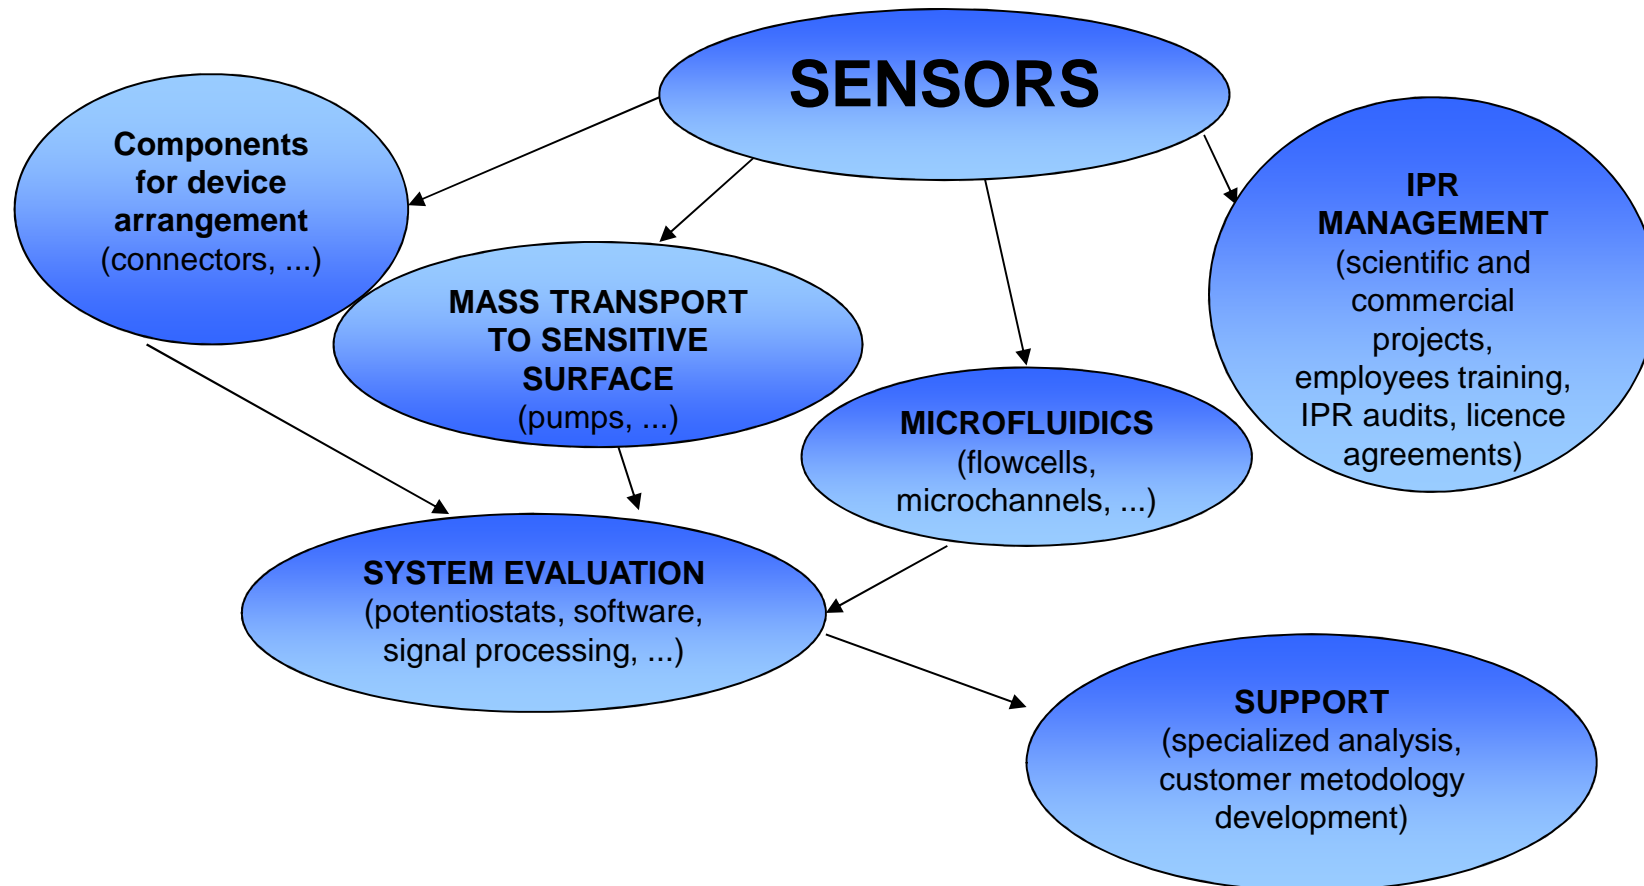

BVT Technologies, a.s.
Hudcova 78c
Brno 612 00
www.bvt.cz
info@bvt.cz

Company branch office:

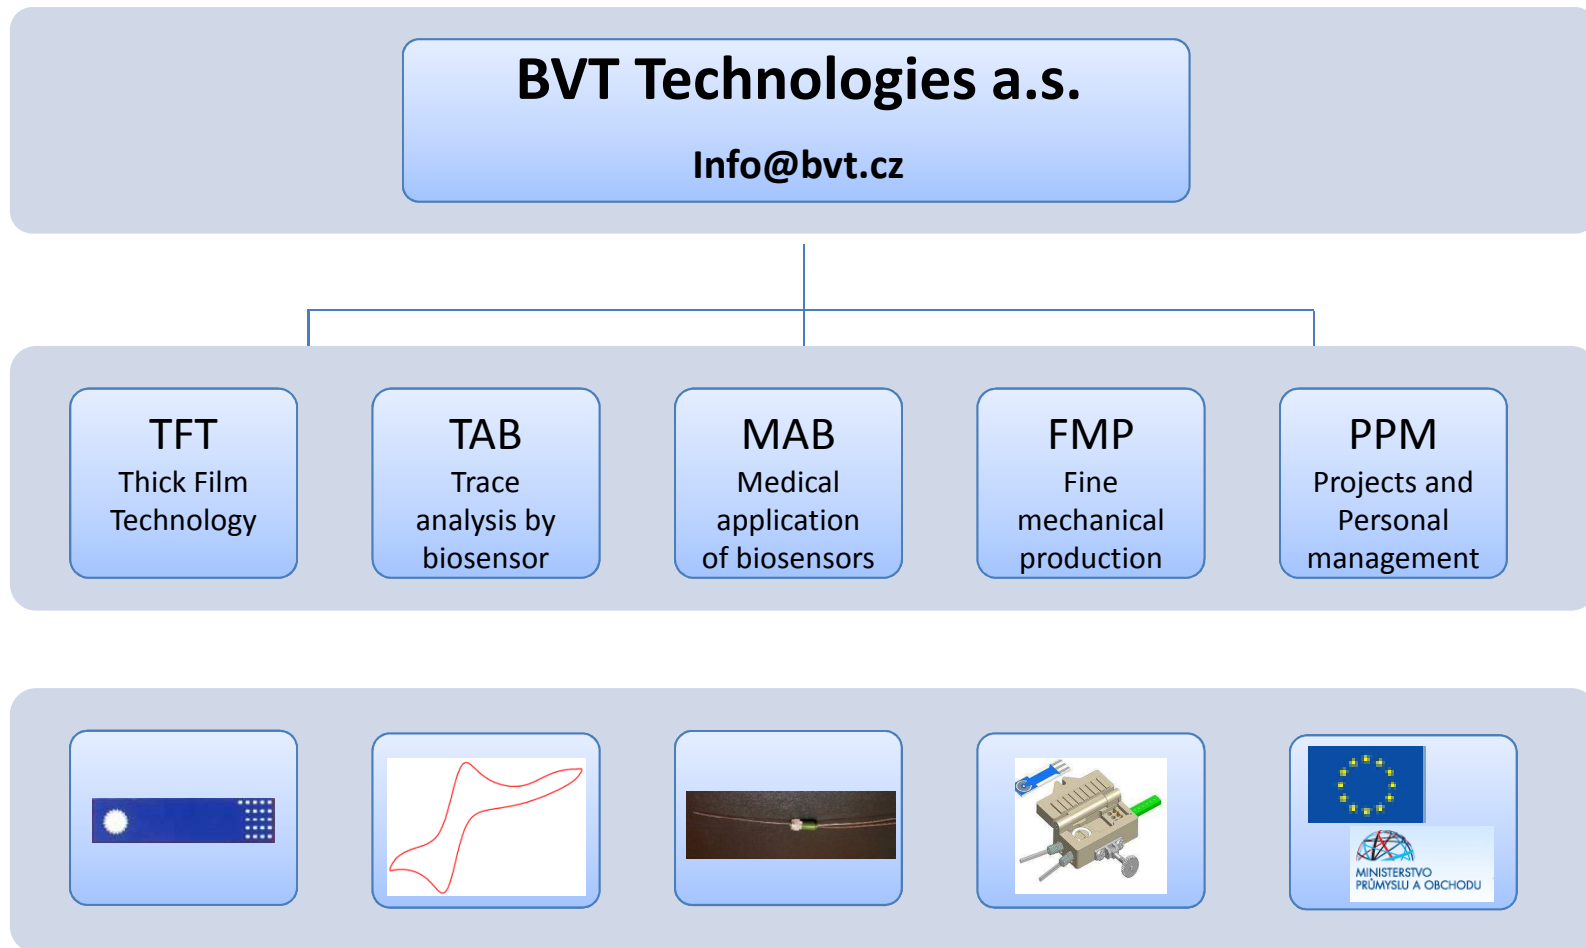

BVT Technologies, a.s.
Strážek 206
Strážek 592 53
www.bvt.cz
info@bvt.cz

What are we doing ?

Scheme Structure

Characteristic of the company

2012

- Established in 2000
- SME, 6 employees + external workers
- Equipped to produce screen printed electrochemical sensors, biosensors and accessories
- Staff with more than 20 years expertise in R&D of electrochemical sensors and biosensors
- Close co-operation with R&D centres (universities and research institutions on international basis)

Key Facts

Research and development

- DLC - TIP programme of Ministry of Industry and Trade of the Czech Republic
- CDV – The second public tender in research, development and innovation ALFA Technology Agency of the Czech Republic
- InFuLOC - EU 7th Framework Programme – Marie Curie
- EU-CLAMP - EU 7th Framework Programme - Research for SMEs

Customers & Partners

Some of collaborating companies

* Probe Scientific (UK) <http://www.probescientific.com/>

* PalmSense (NE) <http://www.palmsens.com/>

* eDAQ (AU) <http://edaq.com/>

* Kamaha electronic (NZ) <http://www.kamaha.com/>

* MiniFAB (AU) <http://www.minifab.com.au/>

* HAAL Elektro, s.r.o. (CZ) <http://www.haalik.cz>

* DATAMED srl (IT) <http://www.datamedsrl.com/>

Collaborating universities

* University of Cambridge (UK) <http://www.cam.ac.uk/>

* Institute of Scientific Instruments of the ASCR, v.v.i. (CZ) <http://www.isibrno.cz/>

* Université Claude Bernard Lyon 1 (FR)
<http://www.univ-lyon1.fr/>

* Teesside University (UK) <http://www.tees.ac.uk/>

RNDr. Jan KREJČÍ, PhD.
Chief of executive board

Email: info@bvt.cz
Tel: +420 563 034 298
Web: www.bvt.cz

Thank you